

Tessa Beauchamp Foundation Scholarship Holy Cross Graduation 2024

This scholarship is established in loving memory of Tessa Beauchamp, a Holy Cross student and a caring, compassionate, competitive, and beautiful young woman with an incredible spirit and passion for life. Tessa valued family, faith, academics, athletics, and community service. Tessa also faced obstacles and adversity with courage and perseverance. Despite her personal challenges, Tessa went out of her way to make sure everyone around her felt welcome and included. Her warm smile would light up any room. Applicants may view more information about Tessa at www.tessabeauchamp.org.

Applicants must complete the application form and attempt to provide a “snapshot” of related activities and endeavors in their own lives. Applicants may also choose to provide information in the format of their choice: written response, video, or movie format.

Applicants can email their completed applications to the Scholarship committee using the contact information listed below.
